ADVERTISEMENTS 80

Mr. Lloyd B. Wilson, Jr., member, Board of Trustees and Mr. Frank Russell, Treasurer, the Fathers' Association.

DEDICATION

Mount Vernon Seminary is very proud to have as one of its organizations, the Fathers' Association. The father of each girl attending Mount Vernon is automatically a member of it. Although a relatively new club, the fathers have shown much interest and enthusiasm in it, and have been eager to better the school in any way possible.

Only two years ago, a language laboratory was donated to our school to assist in learning foreign languages by ear. Mount Vernon students have profited greatly by its use, and are appreciative for the thoughtfulness shown by the Association.

This interest has again been made evident by their great concern for our yearbook, CUPOLA. Last year it was decided by the fathers to give further support than in past years in financing CUPOLA. This has made it possible for the commercial advertising to be excluded from the yearbook, relieving the pressure on the students of getting outside ads.

It is with sincere gratitude that we proudly dedicate the 1962 edition of CUPOLA to the Fathers' Association of Mount Vernon Seminary.

MESSAGE TO THE CLASS OF 1962

Once again it is June in January for me because of your editor's request that I write at Christmas time a message for CUPOLA.

Outside my window snow lies on the campus and a wintry wind brings sleet and freezing rain in its train. Yet in the warmth of my firelit room I seem to hear the rustle of long white dresses and to catch the fragrance of Commencement roses.

How proud my husband and I are to be graduating with the Class of 1962! We hope you will admit us to honorary membership. True it is that it has taken us much longer than you to get through, but we shall be sharing on Commencement morning the same joy that marks the happy accomplishment of one stage of our journey and the same excited anticipation of what lies ahead.

Words that you have often heard me read in morning Chapel come again to mind as I watch you go your separate ways to college:

> "I said to the man who stood at the Gate of the year: Give me a Light that I may tread safely into the unknown. And he replied: Go out into the darkness and put your hand into the hand of GOD. That shall be to you better than light and safer than a known way."

Dear love to you always, and God bless you everyone.

January 1962

Olwen Lloyd.

DR. AND MRS. GEORGE W. LLOYD

FAREWELL

Mount Vernon is a closely knit school composed of the student body, the faculty and staff, and the President and Headmistress. Under the devoted administration of Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd during the last quarter century the school has grown in strength and spirit.

When Mount Vernon was forced to leave its Nebraska Avenue location during the war, it was moved into eleven new houses in Spring Valley. For a time it was rough sailing for all, but Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd never gave up the hope of building a new school. In 1946, through their determination and faith, the new Mount Vernon was opened on Foxhall Road.

This year we are losing our beloved President and Headmistress, who have guided us in learning, and strengthened us in the development of character and sound reasoning. This guidance will enable us to face with greater maturity those problems which will undoubtedly arise for us in the future.

Each member of the school has grown to love and cherish those years which have been spent with Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd at Mount Vernon. With a warm and understanding heart but a firm and directing hand, they have enriched our lives. With loyalty we will always try to live up to those goals which they have held before us. There can never be a good-bye, for what they have left behind will live in our hearts forever.

FACULTY

Education is by no means restricted to the classroom, but that which is presented there has a great effect on the whole process of learning. At Mount Vernon, the members of the faculty strive to instill in their pupils the greatest possible enthusiasm for knowledge. They realize the importance of their own interest and guidance, and in every department, the teachers are unfailingly willing to help their students to understand, and become proficient in unfamiliar subjects.

There are five major academic departments at Mount Vernon. The English department offers a broad study of the language and literature from early English times to the present. The teachers must be as well versed in Shakespeare as in e.e. cummings, in rhetoric as well as in grammar. The history department also covers a broad area of study, both in place and time. The courses range from Bible to International Relations, including Ancient, Modern European, American, and English History. How well the teachers open up the centuries to stimulate the students by their active interest!

The language department offers thorough instruction in French, Latin, and Spanish. In each of these the student is not only taught grammar, but also is given an opportunity during the more advanced years to read some of the classics. Because mathematics and science are becoming so important in our fast moving world, these subjects are greatly stressed. Not only are two years of algebra and one of geometry offered, but also advanced math for those interested in pursuing the subject further. Biology and Chemistry are taught with the experience and capability characteristic of all the faculty.

No matter what her field, each teacher at Mount Vernon delights in bringing the light of new discovery to her students. She appears faithfully with a smile and a helpful word, and regardless of her personal problems, she will continue with the same fresh interest which cannot fail to stimulate the students. The present faculty of Mount Vernon certainly lend spirit and academic distinction to our school.

Student Government

"That government which is the best, is the one that teaches us to govern ourselves." GOETHE

HONOR PLEDGE

I promise on my word of honor, to do my best to uphold the high traditions of Mount Vernon; to be honest in all academic work; to observe and comply with all the regulations of the school; to support the school officers and my team; to be trustworthy in whatever I do; and to reflect credit on my school by my speech, dress and behavior.

When we become members of a community or group, we realize that the rules which govern us are needed in order to have the community run smoothly. For this reason we have an Honor Code at Mount Vernon. The Honor Code applies equally to every student and challenges her to be honest with herself and others. Perhaps one of the most important parts of the Honor Code is that we promise "to do our best" to uphold it. In reality, the Code is the ultimate goal for an ideal community or school.

If every member had equal strength or was not tempted, then we would have an ideal community without a Code, but because a school is only as strong as its weakest member, each of us has to assume responsibility to herself and to others.

MESSAGE FROM THE STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT

Dear Student Body,

The end of a year is a time for remembering. For many of us it is also a time for looking forward—to camp . . . the beach . . . college. It is also a sad time—for the Seniors who realize that never again will conditions be exactly the same. Most of all, it is a time for remembering.

The beginning of this year seems very distant now. It is hard to remember how strange it felt for the Seniors to be wearing red blazers, or how heavy our school books felt after a summer of relaxation.

This year, more than anything else, has brought us a feeling of closeness. We have learned that, by working together, we may strengthen our school as well as ourselves. We have also, this year, become aware of the history of our school. The Student Council elected to have the Honor Assembly in Post Hall to help us realize that, by living up to the Honor Code, we are carrying on the long tradition of academic honesty at Mount Vernon. Remember the Honor Code—for its ideals and spirit can guide us throughout our entire lives.

When we heard Mrs. Lloyd's talk on Founder's Day, we realized how much each of us has to contribute to our school. Over the years, many people have dedicated themselves to Mount Vernon. Now it is up to us to see that their work was not in vain.

I hope that the Student Council has been a help to you this year. We have tried to be leaders in the expression of school spirit, and only when necessary to act as a judicial body. The support you have given us has certainly helped to make our year a success.

I have enjoyed being your Student Body President this year. As time goes by, I shall not remember who was "in uniform" or not, but rather your smiles, your friendship, and your spirit. Thank you for giving me a truly wonderful year.

Best wishes,

Kay

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council contains thirteen members: the Student Body President; Optima President; Secretary-Treasurer; the Day-Student and House Council Presidents; the Presidents and Vice-Presidents of each form and the faculty advisor.

The Student Council meets every Monday to discuss the events of each week, and to deal with problems which have arisen during the week.

The purpose of the Council is to govern our school by working closely with both students and faculty. The closeness with the faculty is evident from the way that the Citizenship Honor Roll is decided. The two organizations compile it jointly at the end of each report period. This is an important task for the Student Council.

During Lent, the Student Council usually holds a charity drive. It is gratifying to see that it is no longer necessary to make collections to combat polio, as it was only a few years ago, but there are still crippled children or other causes to which we can make a Lenten gift.

The Student Council holds open meetings several times during the year, at which suggestions are made and ideas discussed. Through these meetings our school is made stronger.

The most important function of the Student Council lies in upholding and enforcing Mount Vernon's Honor Code. At the beginning of the year, each girl pledges herself to the Code and the ideals it contains. For the rest of the year, the members of the Student Council help the rest of the school live up to its pledge.

HOUSE COUNCIL

The House Council is the governing body in the dormitories. It is composed of the proctors chosen from each hall, an elected secretary, an advisor and a president. House meetings are held throughout the year. At these times all the resident students participate in discussing the general rules. At the House Council meetings, students are brought before the Council to be judged and dealt with, each one according to her offense. On the lighter side, the House Council is responsible for planning parties such as the festive Christmas party complete with "Santa Claus". This year the houses, Somers and Ames, have had a good year, thanks to the cooperation of the boarders, the housemothers and the House Council.

ALMA MATER

Our Alma Mater glorious,
With loving hearts and proud,
We crown thee all victorious
And sing thy praise aloud.
In loyalty we serve thee
And strive to heed thy call,
Mount Vernon, O Mount Vernon!
Through self to conquer all.

You give unfailing kindness
If trouble meet us here;
You foster all our pleasures
And make them seem more dear.
Nor time, nor care, nor sorrow
Can these fair days erase,
But they, with each to-morrow
Help us new tasks to face.

Like breath of Spring's fresh morning
That lifts the heart to song,
When courage droops and wavers
And paths seem gray and long,
Will come thy dauntless spirit
To help us on our way.
Mount Vernon, O Mount Vernon!
Hold fast thy tender sway.

The changing years may bring us
Some longed for dream of bliss,
Yet memory will cherish
A sympathy we miss.
In hours of joy or sadness,
Whate'er our need may be,
Mount Vernon, O Mount Vernon!
Thy children turn to thee.

ABDICATION SONG

O'er our place the shadows gather
As the time draws near to part
As we linger here this morning
Face to face and heart to heart.

Chorus:
Here's to thee oh Alma Mater
May thy name be ever blessed
On her name whose great heart planned thee
May thy daughter's blessing rest.

As you take these seats oh Juniors
May your tongues the chorus swell
Till you reach your day of parting
Till you also say farewell.

Chorus:
Here's to thee oh Alma Mater
May thy name be ever blessed
On her name whose great heart planned thee
May thy daughter's blessing rest.

As we leave this place forever
To our hearts the sad truth tell
With our thoughts of love and sorrow
Now we bid them last farewell.

must part." YOUNG

JUDITH ANNE FULLERTON

MIAMI, OKLAHOMA — FOUR YEARS

"Her scholarship is high and so is her conception of life."

Through four years, we have seen our classmate from Oklahoma emerge from a shy but diligent Freshman to a very successful Senior Class President. Judy is a person of many qualities, of which integrity is the highest. Her classmates will long remember her diversity of talent, for she is equally at home on the hockey field, in the realm of literature, and in front of a class meeting. We are all grateful for the steadying influence she has exercised on us, making our Senior year a very meaningful one.

MARY CATHERINE PATTERSON

WASHINGTON, D. C. — FOUR YEARS

"Bound for success she seemed, with grace to win, with hearts to hold, and shining gifts that took all eyes."

A capable leader, an enthusiastic athlete, a loyal friend, this is Kay. She is the epitome of all those qualities which one admires and respects in a girl. Tactfulness and diplomacy are just two of her special abilities which have enabled her to execute effectively the many tasks which have confronted her while presiding as Student Body President. Along with these duties, Kay has found time for distinguished achievement, and for participation on the varsity teams. Every student will remember her with admiration and affection.

KATHERINE ANNE WOOD

PORTLAND, OREGON — THREE YEARS

"Loyal in leadership, sincere in friendship."

Kathy is the person of happy extremes in the Senior Class. Quick-thinking and intelligent, she always does well in her studies, but can be gay and light-hearted, amusing us all with her innocent "Oh y'all!" Kathy is an able leader. As Optima President she has shown that she can take responsibility well and, when called on, has often added a needed bit of enthusiasm. Our Valentine Queen has what it takes for success in every field—looks, poise, intelligence. Whatever she does, we are sure she will do it well.

White Team; Student Council Vice-President IV; Optima II, III, President IV; Chapel Guild III, IV; Cellophane III; Glee Club II; French Club IV.

ANN STEWART ADAMS

MAPLE HILL, KANSAS — TWO YEARS

"There's not some moment without fun."

Her sparkling sense of humor is Ann's most outstanding characteristic. She can easily move any audience to uproarious laughter with her clever remarks. Whenever the Senior boarders are gathered in the Rec room after dinner, Ann is always at the piano playing anything from Chopin to Kern. Her good taste in clothes has given her the nickname, "tweedy". Because of her agreeable, happy disposition and her enjoyment of whatever she is doing, Ann is well liked and often in demand.

White Team; CUPOLA IV; Glee Club III; Lend-a-Hand IV.

BRETTA MARIE BARRS

TAMPA, FLORIDA — ONE AND ONE HALF YEARS

"Sweet, small and loved by all."

Handle Barrs or Candy Barrs, no matter how you look at it, we have a Barrs of our own. She is petite, but every inch packed with energy and personality. Although she sometimes seems to be walking around in a "Forest", she is always ready for fun and excitement. She has never been known to refuse help to anyone who needed it, and she herself is a constant, steady worker. Not only is she an asset to our school but she is also a true friend to everyone.

White Team; CUPOLA IV; Lend-a-Hand III, IV; Prep Players IV; Cheerleader IV; Sports Club III.

ELIZABETH NELSON BASTABLE

SUMNER, MARYLAND — TWO YEARS

"So bright thy laughter, so charming thy ways."

Here we see a pretty, intelligent face, the outward clue to a kind spirit and fun-loving nature. Her love of a good time has made her one of our most ardent cheerleaders; however, we can only bow before the competition if the Landon football team has more attraction for her. What does the future hold for Betsy? Perhaps a permanent place at the head of the lunch line, perhaps a new French textbook for the next twenty birthdays, but certainly a carton of Winstons and a bigger pocket to hold them.

Yellow Team; Carousel IV; Social League III; Cheerleader III, IV; French Club Vice-President IV; Green Thumb Club IV.

CATHERINE KASS BERGER

WASHINGTON, D. C. FOUR YEARS

"She holds a lot of mischief for such a little person."

What is this sudden red flash seen streaking across the campus? A second glance would tell one that it is Cathy in her red Corvair. As she steps out, we see a petite brunette hurrying to get into her riding clothes. This seems natural because Cathy won the Reserve Championship at Pegasus Stables last year. One can always find her in the library, diligently reading numerous books, yet she always finds a moment to engage in conversation with anyone, and will be found to be gay and interesting.

White Team; Glee Club II; Lend-a-Hand III, IV; Library Council I, II; Prep Players I, IV.

JUDITH ANNE BOLLMAN

SHILLINGTON, PENNSYLVANIA THREE YEARS

"Sometimes serious, sometimes smiling, but always friendly."

A true Pennsylvania Dutchman, that's "Bolls". Sincere and popular, she has a charming manner that has brightened many when skies seemed grey. As you walk past her room, you will see her either helping someone work out a problem, or making plans for another visit to the Lehigh Valley. It's no wonder that everyone likes this tall, good-looking girl, for she is friendly with everyone. "How happy the life unembarrassed by the care of business."

When one hears "Forget it, cat, it doesn't rock" or "Hang that idea up", there is no need to wonder who it is, for everyone knows it could be no other than Cynthia. She is always carefree—ready for a party at any hour. Her interests range from madras, convertibles, and the U.T. to music, clothes, and New York. Because she has a language all her own, Cynthia is known as the originator of many unique sayings. Next year will seem darker without Cynthia's ringing laughter.

SANDRA JEAN WHITNEY

SUMMIT, NEW JERSEY — TWO YEARS

"She counts her friends by the score, and yet there is always room for more."

It is not often that one finds a person with a more sparkling personality than Sandy's. Happiness is always present on Sans' face, remedying anyone's problem at any hour. As jolly ole St. Nick at the boarders' Christmas party, "Sanzolazationola-ole" with her ease and dashing wit, made it a memorable occasion for all. Jollity, however, is not her only characteristic, for Sandy is a sincere and serious student. We were not surprised that she was the first accepted at Centenary and we have high hopes of Sandy's future accomplishments.

DEBORAH WILSON

WASHINGTON, D. C. — FOUR YEARS

"Happy am I, from care I am free! Why aren't they all contented like me?"

A flash of lightning and a bolt of laughter and one knows Dede is not far from reach. She is endowed with that great sense of concern for others; this is the chief ingredient in her warm companionship. Although Dede is an eager participant in the daily ritual of school life, her special interests lie in the field of drama, where the faculty and student body will never forget her spectacular roles in "Alice in Wonderland" and "Peter Pan".

NANCY HAYES YOUNG

WASHINGTON, D. C. — FOUR YEARS

"Kind of heart, joyful of spirit, her laugh is gay, and oft you hear it."

Whenever you hear a bubbly laugh, look for Nancy! She's always vivacious and completely herself; those "horrendous" days are never hers. For those of us who have followed the call of "Okay, kids, let's hit the blue bomb"!, it has been an unforgettable experience to arrive at the launching pad to find no supersonic demon but a '49 Ford, gallantly sporting a Colgate sticker. Wherever that blond head goes, you can be sure that you are seeing Nancy.

Take forty-seven girls, a class advisor, enthusiasm, intelligence, and unity, and you have the Junior Class! Soon to become members of the "Red Blazer Class" these girls have developed in maturity both as individuals and as a group.

class project, was a great success from both the entertainment and the monetary aspect. Some of the newly acquired funds gained from this show were put to a good use by helping to produce a memorable Junior-Senior Banquet.

The Juniors have now completed three-fourths of their preparation and they understand the responsibility they are about to acquire. We can safely say that this class is well prepared for their final year at M.V.S.

SOPHOMORE

The Sophomore Class has undergone many changes since its Freshman days. The first, and perhaps the most noticeable, is the change in size, from seventeen to forty-two students. Mrs. Saporito, the new class advisor, greatly helped iron out such problems as arose while preparing for the yearly project. This year the project was titled "Wagon Whoo-Up", and it followed much the same pattern as last year's, both in theme and in success. It was for the first time that Form II sampled the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Tests, and each one wished it had been the last. However, some aspects of the class have not changed. For example, the Sophomores again have the able leadership of Tempe Grant as President, and Candy Sherwood as Vice-President. But perhaps more important than this, is their school spirit that is still growing steadily day by day.

FRESHMAN CLASS

It was slightly confusing and perhaps a trifle difficult at first for the twenty-three excited, nervous Freshmen, but soon they proved their eagerness and willingness to learn. They quickly became acquainted with the faculty and with fellow classmates, and joined various extra-curricular activities. The rules and regulations came almost automatically to them, and by the end of October, the entire class felt more a part of the school when they elected Betsy Henderson as their President. Right away the Freshmen decided to raffle off a tape recorder and a hair appointment for their class project. This original idea was well supported by all, and their advisor, Mrs. Peirce, helped greatly to make it successful. The Freshmen now are earnestly awaiting their sophomore year, and each girl is hoping it will be half as enjoyable and rewarding as her first year has been.

OPTIMA

Optima is Mount Vernon's honor society. It is best described by its emblem, the Greek letter Omega circumscribing a lighted torch. The Omega symbolizes attainment through effort; the torch is a symbol of the devotion each member of the club should feel for the school.

To become a member of Optima a girl must be placed on three out of four Academic and Citizenship Honor Rolls. She must have the unanimous vote of the members for admission. Optima girls should not only be good students, but helpful and devoted members of the student body. They should try at all times to uphold the standards of Mount Vernon and encourage others to do the same.

The club's activities include a Christmas party for the children of the school's employees and the distribution of May baskets on May Day. Optima girls are also available to serve as hostesses when there are visitors on campus.

Optima is a tradition at Mount Vernon, not only for its members, but also for the school as a whole.

CHAPEL GUILD

Chapel Guild is the school organization which directs our religious life here at Mount Vernon. In this organization we are able to help others through church work. To begin every school day a student or a member of the faculty is asked to lead us in chapel. This small service seems to start our day with a better outlook toward life.

Chapel Guild also has several projects which are carried on throughout the school year. First of all, at Thanksgiving, the altar in chapel is decorated with fruit and vegetables, which are taken later to the Home for Incurables. Another project is collecting clothes for the Church World Service and sending them to needy children abroad.

Still another is raising money for Care. Chapel Guild is also responsible for taking care of the Little Chapel, the small room in the Academic building used for silent meditation. It has been a rewarding experience to see the religious aspects of our life growing steadily, largely through the work of the Chapel Guild.

CAROUSEL

Carousel, Mount Vernon's literary magazine, is written by the students. It is a tri-annual publication which includes not only articles of literary value, but also news items about campus life. Last year's newspaper, "Cellophane", is included in the format of the magazine.

The highlight in the program this year was a literary contest which promoted a great deal of interest in the magazine. Students entered poems, essays, descriptive themes, editorials, and short stories.

Although the staff is small the interest is great and the challenge each member has had in helping to edit the magazine has been exacting and rewarding.

CUPOLA

If you have ever passed by Señorita Carroll's room on a Tuesday afternoon, you have probably seen five senior girls nervously pacing the floor. Those girls compose the Board of CUPOLA! After a year of making up the lay-out, composing senior write-ups, and taking pictures, they finally publish Mount Vernon's yearbook. Working on CUPOLA is a hard job but it is a rewarding experience, one well worth having. It is one of the few activities in which one can see her efforts materialize. The CUPOLA Board would like to express its appreciation to Señorita Carroll, Mr. Duncan Brooks, and Mr. Carroll Hutton for their guidance and cooperation in making this yearbook possible.

PREP PLAYERS

This year Prep Players entered more into the broad field of acting than ever before. Committees were set up to experiment with makeup, stage design, lighting, and theatrical production. As their part of the Christmas Program, the Players and the Glee Club presented poems and songs during a memorable Fireside Program in Post Hall. The unanimous choice for the Spring play was "Peter Pan", and much time and practice went into presenting this play. It was a rather long play to produce but the Players gave an outstanding performance for all. Through the efforts of their steadfast advisor, Mrs. Heflin, the Players have been guided well beyond the fundamentals of acting. Each and everyone who has worked with her in Prep Players salute her—with love in their hearts.

GLEE CLUB

New songs, new girls and new ideas have been the tune of the Glee Club this year. Activities ranged from cokes after meetings to singing at monthly Vespers and at Baccalaureate in June. The Christmas Program combined religious and popular songs with a glowing fireplace and a fairlylike tree, to make a homey fireside celebration. Spring brought the traditional Valley Forge Concert as Mount Vernon visited the academy this year. The concert, and the dinner-dance proved to be an exciting experience enjoyed by all, and permanently inscribed among our M.V.S. memories. The Glee Club sang at Baccalaureate in June, and thus came the end of a busy year. Any troubles of the past seemed now far away as all remember this year as one full of fun, one spiced with challenge.

LEND-A-HAND

Extending a helping hand to others is the main purpose of Lend-a-Hand. It is governed by representatives of each Form, but the whole student body constitutes the membership. Lend-a-Hand has taken a special interest in children this year. It has worked with the Foster Parent's Plan for many years now, and is, at the present, supporting a little Viet Nam girl by sending her clothes and monthly checks. Lend-a-Hand, among other activities, has filled Christmas stockings for the Salvation Army and has given a Christmas party for Georgetown Neighborhood House, where the girls are kept busy every Tuesday afternoon taking care of the children. All the workers who have contributed their time have enjoyed doing their small part for the needy, and hope that Lend-a-Hand will continue its worthwhile work in the future.

LIBRARY COUNCIL

The Library Council, composed of twelve members, enables the students themselves to see at first hand just how a library is organized. Each student devotes one free period a week to working in the library. During this time the student has the opportunity to learn about shelving books, filing in the card catalogue, and performing the many smaller functions of a school library. As part of the reward for working in the library, the girls have two parties. This year, just after Christmas vacation, all the members were invited by the librarians, Miss Thomas and Mrs. Baer, to dinner at a Chinese restaurant. During the spring term there was a picnic at Great Falls. Since books play a major role in all our lives, it is important that we should all know how to find and care for these books. Working on the Library Council has given each and every member this very useful knowledge.

SOCIAL LEAGUE

Every student is a member of the Social League which sponsors three dances during the school year. There is an individual committee composed of a President, a representative from each class, and any students who wish to help. The first dance was held in the autumn against a background of falling leaves, soft lights, and a golden crescent moon as dates twisted to the music of the "Dynatones". Next was the "Sno-Ball" held in early December. Perhaps the name instigated the snow that fell the day of the dance, if not, it certainly made Christmas seem right around the corner. The Commencement dance, which was held at the Washington Club, was a surprise and delight to all, but especially to the Seniors. With the excitement of the end of the year and last minute preparations, this final dance created an enjoyable, memorable atmosphere for everyone.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Each member of the student body, by participation in the Athletic program, is also a member of the Athletic Association. In order that the A.A. may run smoothly, there is a Board consisting of a President, Yellow and White Team Captains, a Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer, and a representative from each class. It is the responsibility of this Board to meet and discuss the various athletic events that are planned throughout the year. Competition between the two teams continually mounts during the school year beginning with the A.A. picnic. This picnic includes choosing the new girls to be on either team, participating in various relays, and tugging in the traditional tug of war. Posture Week, next on the A.A. calendar, is a time when much hard work and many team points are involved. Finally, in May, comes the climax of the athletic year for all, the A.A. Banquet. That night awards are given to individual girls, and each student relives the great victories or the disappointing losses of the year. No matter what the case, the A.A. Board tries hard to promote good sportsmanship—their motto being "Sportsmanship is our highest goal".

Like thee I once have stemm'd the sea of life,
  Like thee have languish'd after empty joys,
Like thee have labor'd in the stormy strife,
  Been grieved for trifles, and amused with toys.

Forget my frailties; thou art also frail:
  Forgive my lapses; for thyself may'st fall:
Nor read unmoved my artless tender tale—
  I was a friend, O man, to thee, to all.

—James Beattie
